

SOLOMON SPAT ON U. S. FLAG, GIRL TESTIFIES

Told Soldiers "Gutter Is Good Enough for You," She Says

STATEMENT IS DENIED

Suspended Socialist Assembly- man Asserts He Was Never Disrespectful to the Flag

Albany, Feb. 3. — Spectators who filled pews and galleries of the New York assembly chamber today suddenly turned forward to catch the words of a soft-voiced girl—a girl of 19—who asserted she had seen Charles Solomon, a member of the assembly, spit on the American flag during war time.

The girl was Ellen B. Chivers, a stenographer living in Brooklyn, and she testified as a witness for the prosecution at the trial of Solomon and his four Socialist colleagues, suspended from office on charges of disloyalty.

There was a burst of applause when she explained that she had volunteered her testimony in a letter to Speaker Charles C. Sweet "because I think it is the duty of any American to take a stand against anyone who has committed treason against his country."

Small, blond, and obviously embarrassed by the hundreds of eyes turned upon her, the girl, prompted by an occasional question, told her story in the following words:

Story of Solomon's Act.

"I remember that in the summer of 1917 a detachment of soldiers came to Ninth street and Sixth avenue, Brooklyn, for the purpose of calling for volunteers, and they asked Mr. Solomon (who was delivering a street-corner address) if they might borrow his platform for that purpose. Mr. Solomon replied, 'Lend you my platform? Can you borrow my platform? Gutter, the gutter is good enough for you.'"

"He said, 'If we had our way, there would not be anyone who would ask a Socialist if they might borrow their platform to call for volunteers.'"

"And he continued to say, 'I would not let you wipe your dirty feet on it.'"

"Then the officer in charge of the detachment spoke from the jitney in which they had come, told them to obtain the number of recruits they could, and went their way."

Keeping her gaze fixed on Solomon, the girl explained that a few minutes later a band came along and struck up the Star Spangled Banner.

"Mr. Solomon turned up his coat collar, put on his hat, pulled it over his eyes, spat on the American flag, and sat down," she concluded.

Solomon Denies Statements.

The girl—whose story tonight brought from Mr. Solomon a statement denying that he had made the remarks attributed to him, asserting that never in his life had he ever shown any disrespect to the American flag and declaring that it was inconceivable any member of the New York police force would stand indifferently by while any person publicly insulted the flag—then was turned over to the defense for cross-examination.

The girl testified that although a member of the American Anti-Socialist League, she had not told her fellow-members of the Solomon incident. The chair sustained an objection to a question as to why she had not done so and why she had not mentioned the affair until nearly three years after it had occurred. When the defense attempted to show she was about 15 years old at the time of the incident, the contention that she was nearly 17.

Asked by members of the judiciary committee, sitting as a court, why she did not ask the policemen she said were present to arrest Solomon if she thought his acts treasonable, Miss Chivers replied, "There were others who did, but the police refused to do it."

By calling Inspector Samuel A. McGowan and Lieutenant Adolph E. Ahlers of the New York police, committee counsel sought to show that Assemblyman Solomon had encouraged mob violence during a threatened strike on the lines of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company and on another occasion had attempted to violate the measure prohibiting the carrying of red flags in parades.

Waldman's Views Outlined.

Richard C. Bunzl, a New York lawyer, who served as a draft board inspector during the war, followed Ahlers to the stand. He testified that in 1918 he had heard Assemblyman Waldman making street corner speeches on the East Side. In substance, Bunzl declared Waldman had stated the laboring man owed no duty to any country but only to a class and that the war was a capitalist war. He declared he had asked Waldman whether he opposed the draft or advised anybody to do so, and that Waldman had refused to answer "because he was afraid of being arrested," but had added "they can't get me anyhow." Bunzl testified Waldman also had refused for fear of arrest to answer a question as to whether he would support the federal constitution if it clashed with that of the Socialist party.

MAN TO MARRY GIRL HIS BROTHER WRONGED

English Girl Here With "War Baby" Applies for License to Wed Guy Spiker

Fall River, Mass., Feb. 3. — Miss Emily Knowles and her five-month-old son, who were released by the immigration authorities at Ellis Island yesterday, arrived here today by boat, accompanied by Mrs. Cora M. Spiker of Baltimore, Md., wife of the father of the child, and Mrs. Spiker's brother-in-law, Guy S. Spiker, whom Miss Knowles has promised to wed. Perley R. Spiker of Baltimore, former flying lieutenant, whose romance with Miss Knowles while he was at an aviation camp in England led the young woman to come to this country with her child, was not a member of the party.

The party were greeted by Mrs. William Battersby of this city with whom Miss Knowles is to make her home pending her marriage. Mrs. Battersby is an intimate friend of Miss Knowles' family in Manchester, England. Their meeting was very affectionate. Taxicabs took the party to the Battersby home, where Mr. Battersby, who is ill, was also very friendly in his greeting of the English girl.

Marriage license blanks were filed out late today at the city clerk's office by Miss Knowles and Guy S. Spiker and will be given to them on Sunday by the clerk, when the five-day period required by law of non-residents has been completed. They sought to have the time required waived but were refused by the city clerk and by Judge Edward F. Hanly of the district court, to whom they appealed. It is expected that they will be married on Sunday.

The police tonight said they did not intend to question Miss Knowles as to reports that she had been married in England to Perley R. Spiker. Guy Spiker issued a statement denying that there had been any such marriage.

Mrs. Spiker and her brother-in-law left tonight for New York and Baltimore, the latter saying that he would return on Sunday to be married to Miss Knowles, who will await his return at the Battersby home.

NO RESULTS FROM R. R. WAGE PARLEY

No Definite Program Agreed To at Conference Between Hines and Labor Leaders

Washington, Feb. 3. — Prolonged discussion of demands for increased wages between railroad administration officials and representatives of the two million employees of federal-controlled railroads had netted no tangible results when the first session of the conference adjourned tonight. While neither Director General Hines nor the labor leaders would make a public statement concerning the day's negotiations, it was understood that the arguments thus far had failed to crystallize into a definite program.

Director General Hines had not presented his proposals in their entirety when the conference broke up until tomorrow, having adopted the policy of hearing arguments from all union heads as each particular statement of the government's case was laid before the conference. The administration thus obtained a comparative idea of the labor view as individual claims and counter arguments were taken up. It was not believed tonight that the conference would result in a solution of the whole wage problem. Some of the demands were expected to be withdrawn and others probably will be compromised or be re-submitted to the union memberships directly affected.

Railroad administration officials refused to discuss reports current tonight that Director General Hines had submitted three propositions to the union officials, one of which was that a commission be appointed similar to the present coal strike settlement commission with authority to investigate wage conditions and determine wage scales to be made effective.

D'ANNUNZIO OFFICERS HELD.

Turin, Monday, Feb. 2. — Four lieutenants, five sub-lieutenants and one sergeant of Captain Gabriele d'Annunzio's Fiumian army, who made up the party which kidnapped General Nigra, commander of the 42nd division, stationed at Istria, late Wednesday night, have been arrested and are imprisoned here, after having again crossed the armistice line. Other "desperate deeds" are charged against them.

Examination that Waldman had, while indulged in "innuendoes," said nothing which he regarded as a violation of the law.

Peter W. Collins, a former Boston labor leader and now director of the reconstruction and employment service being carried on by the Knights of Columbus, was on the stand nearly three hours this morning.

He testified that Socialism was seeking to capture trade unionism to overturn society by force such as was used in Russia; that propaganda instigated by Lenin and Trotsky was aimed to destruction of the American republic by mass action, and that during the war he had seen Socialists opposing increased production in shipyards and factories, whereas organized labor as represented by the American Federation of Labor tried to triple it to help win the war.

DANIELS REPLIES TO CRITICS OF AWARDS POLICY

Defends His Action in Altering Some of the Recommendations

ASSAILS ADMIRAL SIMS

Good Thing for Him He Didn't Tell Men "Navy Did No Fight- ing," Says Daniels

Washington, Feb. 3. — Secretary Daniels made formal answer today to criticisms by Rear Admiral William S. Sims and others of the policy followed in awarding war decorations. Appearing before the senate sub-committee investigating the awards, Mr. Daniels reaffirmed the views which led him to alter some of the recommendations for decorations, supporting his contentions with a long, carefully prepared statement going into the medal situation in detail.

Other charges made by Admiral Sims as to the preparedness of the navy at the start of the war and the degree of co-operation with Allied admiralities were not taken up directly, Mr. Daniels confirming his testimony wholly to the medal controversy. When the secretary concluded, Chairman Hale, of the sub-committee, adjourned the hearing until Friday to permit committee members to study Mr. Daniels' statement.

Daniels Shows Considerable Feeling.

The navy secretary at several points in the two and a half hours' reading of his prepared statement showed considerable feeling, particularly when he countered the statement of Admiral Sims that the American navy "did no fighting during the war." In this connection, Mr. Daniels, vigorously pounding the table, told the committee that it was well that Admiral Sims had not made such an assertion to the men operating American vessels in the war zone, for if he had "the world would have a revolt in his own command."

At another point, the secretary departed from his written statement to declare that Admiral Sims as a result of personal differences with Admiral Henry B. Wilson, former commander of the American naval forces off the French coast, had omitted Wilson's name from the list of officers recommended for Distinguished Service medals.

The secretary's testimony for the most part, however, was confined to the prepared statement, in which he took up point by point statements before the sub-committee by Admiral Sims and dwelt at considerable length on the two major disagreements voiced by the admiral, namely, the awarding of decorations to officers who lost their ships through submarine attacks or by mines, and the relative importance of shore and sea duty.

On the controverted point of importance of sea service as compared to service ashore, Mr. Daniels said he had not, and would never, "approve a disparity between awards given men who served on shore as compared with the men who went to sea." Admiral Sims, he asserted, probably advocated high awards for many officers who served on staff duty ashore and few awards for officers who went to sea because "most of Admiral Sims' duty in the navy has been on shore."

Navy Morale Not "Shot to Pieces."

Turning to the second fundamental difference between his views and those of the admiral, Secretary Daniels said that many other admirals of the navy and the Knight board of medal awards had established a precedent that officers of ships torpedoed or mined should be decorated whenever their conduct was meritorious and reflected credit on the service.

Concluding his testimony with a denial of Admiral Sims' charge that "naval morale has been shot to pieces through the method followed in awarding honors," Secretary Daniels declared that there was nothing the matter with the morale of the navy except a shortage of enlisted men in many ratings and insufficient pay for the officers and men left.

Making a plea for immediate legislation that would increase navy pay to a status "at least comparable with the pay given men holding positions of similar responsibility in civilian life," the secretary said that if such action were taken the country would "soon learn that there is nothing the matter with the navy."

25 REPORTED KILLED WHEN TRAIN PLUNGES THROUGH DRAW

Clifton, La., Feb. 2. — Two white teammen are known to have been killed, and from 15 to 25 negroes are believed to have met their deaths in the wreck near here today of a St. Louis Iron Mountain and Southern passenger train which plunged through an open drawbridge over the Texas river.

The coach set aside for negro passengers was the only one to go through the draw, which was open to allow the passage of a steamboat and tow. The coach is reported to be under 50 feet of water.

GRAFT IN BUILDING OF WAR PLANT IS CHARGED

Former Director of Operations at Mussel Shoals Points Out Great Extravagance

Washington, Feb. 3. — Reckless extravagance in the construction of the government nitrate plant at Mussel Shoals, Ala., was charged in a report by Colonel Fred H. Wagner, formerly director of operations at the plant, filed today with the house war expenditures committee.

Colonel Wagner's charges filled more than 100 pages and touched on every possible phase of the building and operation of the $70,000,000 war project. It was too much for Chairman Graham to read in a day, but he declared the conclusions revealed "astounding conditions."

Colonel Wagner told how he had protested against paying $550 for a portrait of Frank S. Washburn of New York, president of the American Cyanamid company, a subsidiary of which, the Air Nitrate corporation, had the government contract for the actual building. The biggest chapter was written under the caption of "extravagance," with waste, inefficiency and irregularities placed next in that order in the wholesale indictments that included hundreds of names.

Touching the broad question of extravagance, Colonel Wagner declared the Air Nitrate corporation maintained a publicity bureau at the plant that cost $3,000,000 a month.

"The only conceivable reason for a private enterprise advertising a government-owned project," the report declared, "is the expectation of coming into possession of property and having already thoroughly developed it, being in position to market its securities."

New York, Feb. 3. — Frank S.

Washburn, president of the American Cyanamid company, in a statement issued here tonight, declared that the reports filed by Colonel Fred H. Wagner of the nitrate plant at Mussel Shoals "was evidently made one year ago." Mr. Washburn declared that Colonel Wagner had apparently since changed his mind and as proof quoted an extract from an article which he said the colonel contributed to the manufacturer's records last November, saying that "the operation of this plant more than met expectations with the exception of some few minor details."

EPIDEMIC DEATH TOLL IN NEW YORK JUMPS

163 Died of Influenza in Metrop- olis Yesterday and 184 From Pneumonia

New York, Feb. 3. — More deaths from influenza and pneumonia were reported to the health department today than on any day since the present epidemic began. Today's deaths were 163 from influenza compared with 94 yesterday and 134 from pneumonia, an increase of 75. New cases of influenza totalled 3,829, compared with 2,675 yesterday. There were 589 new cases of pneumonia, an increase of 56.

Danger that many of the influenza and pneumonia patients might suffer from lack of heat was removed when the threatened strike of 5,000 organized stationary engineers, firemen, oilers and coal passers was called off tonight. The men had planned to cease work tomorrow morning but Health Commissioner Copeland, who acted as intermediary between the employers and the labor bodies, brought about an adjustment. It was said that most of the demands of the men were met.

Albany, Feb. 2.—Twenty-two cases of pneumonia with eight deaths were reported to the state department of health yesterday. These figures do not include the cases in New York city. There were 1,470 cases of influenza reported, these covering the week-end period and, therefore, somewhat more extensive than on ordinary days. Twelve additional nurses were placed yesterday in communities suffering from influenza and pneumonia.

Washington, Feb. 3. — President Wilson contracted a cold several days ago and had a narrow escape from influenza, his physician, Rear Admiral Grayson, said today.

HUDSON FALLS SUFFERS $500,000 CONFLAGRATION

Glens Falls, Feb. 3. — Damage estimated at more than half a million dollars was done by a fire at the village of Hudson Falls today. The blaze, starting in a restaurant in a large four-story brick building, rapidly spread and it was not until afternoon that the combined fire departments of Glens Falls, Hudson Falls and Fort Edward had the situation under control.

The large brick block, containing stores on the ground floor and tenements above, was destroyed, as was St. Mary's church and three other buildings. Thirty-five families were made homeless.

The fire started shortly after 5 o'clock and many persons were crowded to flee from the building steadily clad. Poor water pressure handicapped the firemen.

FIRST EVIDENCE SUBMITTED AT NEWBERRY TRIAL

Two Newspapermen Testify of Costly Pub- licity Campaign

UNUSUAL DEVELOPMENT

Helme Tells Court That He Was "Worked" Into Entering Sen- atorial Race Against Ford

Grand Rapids, Mich., Feb. 3. — First evidence in the election conspiracy trial of Senator Newberry and 122 co-defendants was introduced tonight when J. G. Hayden, Washington correspondent of the Detroit News, and Joseph Swinhart, head of that newspaper's New York bureau, gave testimony bearing on the Newberry publicity campaign. Previous to the calling of these witnesses, James H. Helme, candidate for United States senator in the 1918 Democratic primary in Michigan and one of the defendants, made to the jury a statement which he said was "humiliating."

Helme's appearance was unheralded. It followed a statement by James Murlin, who opened for the defense, that Helme had been "worked" by the Newberry campaign committee into making the race against Ford. Murlin explained to the jury that this was done to prevent the Democratic votes being cast for Henry Ford in the Republican primary.

Helme's "Humiliating" Story.

"It was 'worked,' as Mr. Murlin told you," said Helme. "I am making this statement because I seem to occupy a position apart from the other defendants, but the recital is a bit humiliating."

Helme said that Samuel O'Dell, another defendant, who was state treasurer in 1918, told him that if he "beat Ford in the Democratic primaries and Ford won the Republican nomination, all the Republicans would turn to him in the general election."

"Spending money in a campaign may be legal, but I am an idealist and hold it to be a moral wrong," he said.

Hayden testified to conversations in December, 1917, with Frederick Cody and Truman H. Newberry, then a lieutenant commander in the navy. He said on direct examination that Cody tried to hire him as campaign manager for Newberry. On cross-examination by Martin W. Littleton, he argued that the job was that of a "political secretary" with headquarters in Detroit. Hayden swore that Cody came to Washington and offered him the position and later telephoned from New York and arranged a Sunday conference in that city with Mr. Newberry. He said he understood their offer was $500 a month, but that he refused because he believed political jobs were disadvantageous to newspaper reporters after they returned to their own profession.

Advised Against "Barrel Campaign."

Hayden said Cody told him that the Newberrys were eminently wealthy, but he had advised Cody and Newberry not to make a "barrel campaign." He said Newberry agreed with him and they mentioned the Mitchell mayoralty campaign in New York and the Herlick campaign in Ohio as examples of wasted expenditures.

Swinhart testified to meeting Cody in New York in January, 1918, and being told that Hayden would be made such an attractive financial offer that he "could not afford to refuse it."

Swinhart also testified that Cody said in New York: "It will be a great time for the boys in Michigan because they will spend a barrel of money."

SAYS STRIKERS ALWAYS WIN OUT

Representative Blanton Charges Secretary of Labor Wilson Is "Crooked."

Washington, Feb. 3. — Six thousand strikes which occurred during the war were settled in favor of strikers, Representative Blanton, Democrat, told the house today, charging that the labor department always sends out conciliators who were prejudiced. He was opposing a deficiency appropriation to pay conciliators.

"If the executive of that department is crooked, and we know it, are we not responsible when we continue to put funds into his hands?" Blanton asked.

"I would not charge that the secretary of labor is crooked," Chairman Good of the appropriations committee interjected. "I served with him in the house. I would not make that charge. I thought he was a very able and straightforward man."

"You are not keeping up with his record in the labor department," Blanton retorted.

"An organized league of five million men headed by Samuel Gompers is running the government," Blanton declared, adding, "Congress has always bowed to the dictates of the slaves of this country."

MERCURY, FORMER HUN PASSENGER SHIP, SOLD

But Was Not One of Those Ves- sels Against Sale of Which Baker Protested

Washington, Feb. 3. — Coincident with the explanation of Brigadier General Hines, chief of the army transport service, to the senate commerce committee on the war department's attitude toward the sale of former German passenger liners, the shipping board today announced the sale of the Mercury, one of the 20 former German ships for which the board recently received bids. The Mercury, however, is not one of the vessels against the sale of which the war department has protested.

The Mercury was sold to Charles C. A. Fitch, of the American International Bureau of Supplies of New York. The purchase price was not made public, officials explaining that it was subject to modification.

The war department's attitude toward the sale of the former German passenger liners used as transports during and after the war is that they should be operated under the American flag and that their purchasers should agree to redeliver them to the government in the event of a national emergency, said Brigadier General Hines, who added that the army had millions of dollars' worth of equipment in storage for use in refitting them as transports, should the need arise.

Bids on most of these vessels were opened recently by the shipping board, but action on them has been deferred because of a war department protest against their outright sale. The matter is understood to have been referred to President Wilson for a final decision.

General Hines told the committee that 12 of the 19 liners taken over by the war department had been returned to the board and that the others would be released as rapidly as the new army transports now building at Hog Island could be delivered.

Some of the former German liners, he added, will be required to take the American and Czechoslovak forces out of Siberia.

Strike Commission

ENDS ITS HEARINGS

Miners and Operators Make Closing Arguments for Their Respective Sides

Washington, Feb. 3.—With concluding arguments presented before the coal strike settlement commission today by spokesmen for the operators and mine workers in the central competitive field, the reiterated demand of the workers for a 60 per cent increase in wages and a 30 hour week was submitted to the final decision of the commission. Each side, however, was granted permission to present within five days a written brief before the evidence was finally submitted.

In closing the statement for the United Mine Workers, John L. Lewis, acting president of the organization, declared the reasonableness of the miners' demands not only had not been shaken by the operators' evidence, but had been overwhelmingly supported by it.

Summing up the position of the operators, Ralph Crews, attorney, told the commission that from all the evidence submitted "it is apparent that what the miners need to improve their condition is not an increased wage scale, but greater disposition to work when the opportunity to work is given them."

A final plea on behalf of the operators that the commission provide means to compel individual miners to abide by their working contracts with operators, with the same obligation resting upon the operators, was voiced by Philip Penna, secretary of the Indiana Coal Operators' association.

William Greene, secretary of the union, in a final argument in support of the miners' demand for a 30-hour week, declared the granting of such a demand not only was an "economic possibility" but that it probably would cause an actual increase in production over the present eight-hour day. It would guarantee to the miner, he estimated, 265 days of work in the year, whereas for the last seven years he has averaged only 200 days.

GAS POISONS SIX MEN.

Newark, N. J., Feb. 3.—Six men were found dead of gas poisoning in a small hotel here today. All of them had been sleeping in one room, three on one bed, two on another and the sixth on a cot.

Dej Grana, a Spaniard, owner of the hotel, was arrested on a charge of manslaughter by order of County Physician Warren. It is alleged that he was guilty of criminal negligence in allowing the use of defective gas fixtures.

All the dead are Spaniards.

Flags on Soldiers' Graves.

Washington, Feb. 3. — Beginning Memorial day, an American flag will fly from the grave of every American soldier buried in France, the war department announced today. In addition, large flags will be hoisted in the center of the large cemeteries and smaller flags will be used at the smaller or burial grounds.

CLOTURE RULE STILL EXISTS, SENATORS SAY

But Its Opponents Plan to Void It by Recom- mitting Treaty

BORAH DEFENDS STAND

Declares Viscount Grey's State- ment Bears Out Contentions of Irreconcilables

Washington, Feb. 3. — The senate leaders, preparing to bring the peace treaty again to the surface for senate consideration next week, took up today the problem of clearing away the wreckage of tangled parliamentary red tape which the treaty carried down with it when it failed of ratification last November.

The cloture rule which was invoked to choke off debate just before the ratification vote, must come back into the senate along with the treaty. It was argued by some senators. The leaders want some sort of cloture, but do not want to be string-halting by so stringent a rule, under which many senators already have exhausted their full quota of time.

The method apparently most in favor for avoiding this difficulty is to re-commit the treaty to the foreign relations committee, a movement which parliamentary experts say would automatically rid it of its cloture restriction. If that is done, it probably will be qualified by a stipulation that a report is to be returned immediately. Then, when the report is made the Republicans will be ready to prevent reservations and the Democrats to suggest modifications in them.

Borah on Grey's Statement.

A statement declaring the recent letter of Viscount Grey and the cablegram of Lloyd George bore out the contention of the treaty's irreconcilable foes was issued tonight by Senator Borah. It said:

"The weakening and injury to the league which some apprehend from the American reservations would not be felt in practice," thus Viscount Grey disposes of all reservations and renounces them as utterly ineffective and worthless. "The red part of the treaty is entirely correct. Those proposed reservations do not protect our independence. They do not protect America at all. They are simply the flimsy excuse for failure, to do what it is the plain duty of patriotic men to do. They are the answer of party politics to the demand by foreign governments to surrender our independence."

"The Grey interview and Lloyd George's cablegram ought to convince anyone that there is just one question involved in this controversy—that is, shall we enter the league or shall we stay out of it? When we enter the league, we are there for all purposes and our reservations will never be felt or even respected."

Lodge Reservations Satisfactory.

"It has been known in Washington for weeks that the Lodge reservations were entirely satisfactory to the English premier. He would have said so publicly long ago but he did not desire to offend the President. But after an effort to reach the President through Viscount Grey failed and after a full study and after consultation with the greatest lawyers of London and some in this country, it was concluded that reservations construed by a political body from whose construction there was no appeal would be wholly worthless. So Lloyd George cabled, 'Lodge reservations satisfactory. We want the United States to enter the league.' Come into my parlor, said the spider to the fly. I will take my own time in advising you how to get out."

Explaining the reference to Premier Lloyd George's cablegram, Senator Borah said he understood that such a cablegram as he quoted was sent by the British premier to Viscount Grey early in January. He added that he had been informed that two or more members of the senate had seen the cablegram although he "had never seen it himself."

Reports that Premier Lloyd George had set forth his attitude toward proposed American reservations have been current at various times in senate cloakrooms.

Rochester, Feb. 3.—In his annual address at the opening of the forty-seventh annual meeting of the New York State Grange in Convention hall here this afternoon, Sherman J. He opposed a state daylight saving measure and recommended refusal of the farmers of the nation to join with the labor movement.

RADICALS SAME AS CRIMINALS

Should Be Punished in the Same Manner, Judge Ascertains in His Charge to the Jury.

Rochester, Feb. 3. — Declaring that doctrines imported from abroad are being advanced and supported by aliens "with a presumption and audacity which verges almost to the point of open rebellion to the constituted authorities," Supreme Court Justice Adolph J. Rodenbeck today in his charge to the February grand jury said that "these offenders have had full swing long enough and should not be coddled and treated with soft hands but should be called to the bar of justice and made to answer for their conduct like any other criminal."

"The code of criminal procedure," Justice Rodenbeck said, "defines criminal anarchy, so called, but any doctrine by whatever name it may be called, whether Bolshevism, Sovietism, Communism, Socialism, or what-not, which advocates the word or writing the overthrow of the government by violence or force or by any other unlawful means, is declared to be a felony by the law of the state and any person advocating these doctrines is a criminal and should be placed on trial and, if guilty, punished for the offense."

Doctors Tell Why You Should Quit Tobacco

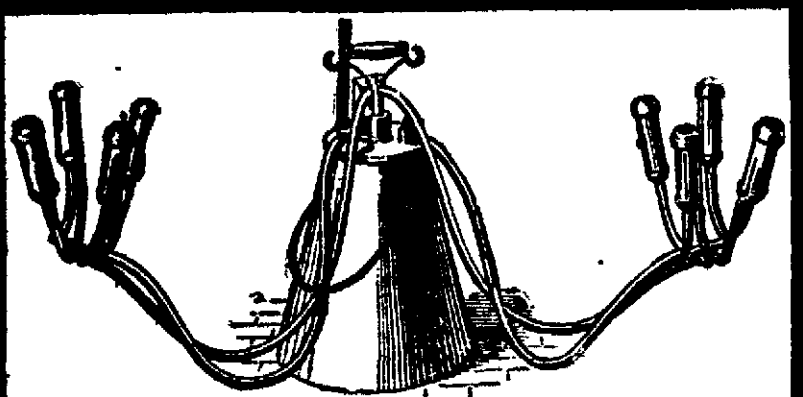

Dr. Keene says cigarette smoke acts powerfully on lung tissue and induces pulmonary tuberculosis, while it causes permanent degeneration of the cells of the nervous system, including those of the brain, and thus weakens the mental faculties.

Dr. Keeley says tobacco enfeebles digestion and lays the foundation for nearly every nervous disorder now common to the American people. It produces color blindness, epilepsy, bronchitis, rheumatism and asthma, cramps and catarrh, tobacco heart and cancer of the stomach.

Dr. Holly, surgeon of St. Thomas Hospital and expert in diseases of the brain and nervous system, says: "I know of no single vice which does so much harm as smoking. It is a snare and a delusion. It weakens the excited nervous system at the time to render it more irritable and feeble ultimately. I know of no other cause or agent that so much tends to bring on functional diseases, and through this in the end to lead to organic disease of the brain."

Mr. Smoker, can you afford to indulge this habit? Let Nicotol help you to throw off the fetters of tobacco. Nicotol kills the craving and sets you free. It makes the tobacco habit quit you and keeps you feeling fine and fit all the time. Get Nicotol tablets of any druggist.

Note—When asked about Nicotol tablets one of our leading druggists said: "It is truly a wonderful remedy for the tobacco habit; away ahead of anything we have ever sold before. We are authorized by the manufacturers to refund the money to every dissatisfied customer, and we would not permit the use of our name unless the remedy possessed unusual merit." Nicotol tablets are sold in this city under an iron-clad money-back guarantee by all up-to-date druggists, including March, the Drug-gist; City Drug Store.

We have a few single cylinder pumps on hand that we can sell at one-half price.

You make no mistake when you purchase an Empire. Our six years' experience selling milkers, together with a good supply of repairs on hand, enables us to guarantee quick and efficient service.

PURCHASE CASKETS TO BE USED FOR RETURN OF SOLDIER DEAD

Washington, Feb. 2. — The purchase of 17,000 caskets at a cost of $1,104,508 to be used for the return of army dead from Europe has been completed by the war department in accordance with its announced policy to return as soon as practicable the bodies of American soldiers buried in France to the next-of-kin, for interment in this country. The manufacturers were instructed today to expedite delivery.

The department also made public today a communication from a committee of the Casket Makers' association of America condemning "any plan for the general return of the bodies as impractical, expensive and unsatisfactory."

RAILROAD OFFICIAL SLAIN

Chicago, Feb. 2. — H. T. Swegman, chief claim agent of the Pennsylvania lines in Chicago, was shot to death in a fight in the offices of the United States railroad administration, on the fifteenth floor of an office building today. Harry Clausen, a visitor in the office, was shot in the leg.

The shooting is said to have been done by a former employee in Swegman's office named Donovan. The slayer fled from the building before police arrived.

A Remarkable Case Of a New York Woman

Syracuse, N. Y. — "Several years ago I developed a woman's trouble. My back would ache all the time and I was extremely nervous. I tried several different medicines and doctors without relief. Finally I decided to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and I found it excellent. It built me up and gave me great relief. I took Favorite Prescription again and it kept me in a good healthy state, and my baby was fine and healthy. I certainly can recommend 'Favorite Prescription' to others, judging by what it did for me."

"Last fall I was seriously ill with peritonitis and inflammatory rheumatism and was in the hospital for several weeks. I was not helped any while there. When I was brought home I dared not move my body from my hips down as each movement brought a scream of pain. A couple of days after I came home it came to my mind what Dr. Pierce's medicine had done for me a few years ago so I immediately sent my husband to the drug store. He came home with a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Ankyriasis Compensated Linctament. After using it about six times, by gentle moving I could lift my knees and in about two weeks' time I could turn slightly in bed, with some pain of course, but at the end of the third week I was able to walk from my bed to a chair about ten steps away without the aid of crutches. After about five weeks I disappeared with the crutches and could walk unaided to the kitchen and back and at the seventh week I got around and did my own work. Dr. Pierce's Linctament did the work and I am always ready to recommend it to any of my neighbors. Several are using this linctament now on my recommendation as they saw what it did for me and in so short a time, too. I keep it in my house all the time now."—MRS. W. G. WHELEN, 518 Lombard Ave.

CRASH IN EXCHANGE IS MORE ALARMING

Substantial Shares Impaired by 2 to 5 Points—Market Weakens in the Final Hour

New York, Feb. 3. — The more alarming crash in foreign exchange today overshadowed all other considerations and developments in the stock market. Substantial shares were impaired by 2 to 5 points and many of the more speculative issues suffered greater depreciation.

The further collapse of international credit not only carried remittances on London and leading European capitals to new points of discount, but was so sweeping as to embrace the British provinces. In Montreal, for example, exchange on New York was at a premium of 13 1/2 per cent.

During the more feverish period of the decline in exchange, it was reported that dealers would only accept bills for collection. In effect, they declined to buy outright.

Among the weaker stocks were several to which foreign investors have in past times showed marked partiality. Sales of those issues today were attributed in some quarters to the belief that this center offered the only available market for their transfer into cash.

Following its course of the previous day, the market was weakest and most active in the final hour, when exchange on London, Paris and Rome was at lowest quotations. The high-class steels, motors and equipments continued to yield, closing prices almost without exception being at or within easy range of minimum levels.

Oils and shippings also gave way to more extensive offerings, and numerous miscellaneous specialties participated in the decline, but rails of the better grade finished at relatively nominal losses.

Sales amounted to 1,000,000 shares.

Two of the Liberty bond issues—the second 4's and second 4 1/2's—established new low records during the session. Other Liberties, and the Victory notes, were variably lower with international, including Paris 6's. The general bond market was weak. Sales, par value, were $18,350,000. Old United States bonds were unchanged on call.

Jesse L. Lasky Presents

HOUDINI in THE GRIM GAME

BY ARTHUR BREEVE AND JOHN W. GRAY
DIRECTED BY IRVIN WILLAT

$1,000 Reward

The above sum will be paid by Houdini to any person who can prove that the hair-raising airplane chase, collision and crash to earth, as shown in "The Grim Game," did not actually occur.

The stirring climax shows the hero racing through the sky in pursuit of another plane which has kidnapped a girl he intends to rescue.

He overtakes his foe, rises above him, leaps into space, and, dangling on a rope, attempts to board the enemy machine.

But just as he nears the cockpit, there is an accident. The airplanes clash—lock together—plunge with their occupants 3,000 feet to earth.

And the camera man, in another plane, caught it all!

A real accident reported by the Associated Press. A breath-snatching thrill that will never be duplicated. Yet only one of the amazing scenes of dare-devil adventure in "The Grim Game." Come early.

The whole world knows Houdini, the "Handcuff King." "The Man of Many Escapes." The master wizard of all time. But it knows him only on the stage. Give him the great outdoors and the boundless resources of the motion picture camera—and then what?

In "The Grim Game," an absorbing mystery of a hundred thrills, you will gasp at the feats that made him famous. But more! You will see Houdini in a fascinating new role—a romantic dramatic figure in a series of death-defying escapades that have never been equalled either in real life or on the screen. Every feature authentic. Every scene a sensation. Come early.

BIG EVENT AT HARTWICK.

Eastern Star Supper and Dance Draws a Large Crowd.

Hartwick, Feb. 3.—The first annual supper and dance held under the auspices of the Order of the Eastern Star was held at the E. M. B. A. hall in this village last evening. It was a most enjoyable event and was largely attended. About 300 people were gathered in the hall and about 75 dance numbers were sold. From 10 o'clock on until all were served, a most delectable oyster supper was served to the ladies of the order. The Isman's orchestra from Cooperstown furnished good music for the dancing. Nearly 100 people from Cooperstown attended the affair, cars running to Cooperstown after the dance. The proceeds were about $135, which goes for the benefit of the Eastern Star order. This is their first supper and dance, which they expect to make an annual event, and it is hoped that the success of the evening will make it an assured fact.

GENEROUS ACT AT MILFORD.

Local Red Cross Gives $100 to Aid Starving Armenians.

Milford, Feb. 3.—At the regular monthly meeting of the Milford Red Cross executive board, held at the home of Mrs. George Mumford, Monday evening, the treasurer was instructed to send to the commission in New York city $100 from the treasury funds to be used for the relief of the starving Armenians. There can be no doubt in the minds of the people, who read the daily papers that the situation there is alarming and that immediate relief is necessary.

The executive board considered the question well before voting to give the hundred dollars from the treasury and their action in this matter should be commended by all Christian people. Regardless of the need for funds that may confront the Red Cross from this community in the future, the fact remains that nearly 100,000 children are homeless and starving in Armenia. Now that this step has been taken the executive board has decided to make a final appeal to every man, woman and child in this community to join the Milford Red Cross. Only 50 members were secured in December last year, compared to over 300 the year before. Every person owes it, as a duty to the country, to become a member of the Red Cross and this new impetus to help the starving people of the Near East should bring hundreds of new members to this branch. Send your dollar at once to the secretary, Mrs. S. H. Osborn that your name may be enrolled for 1920.

Potatoes Drop to $2.25.

The potato market dropped from $2.75 to $2.25 per bushel at the local market last week.

HOWARD C. MILLER DEAD.

Former Otsego County Boy Victim of Influenza in Denver.

Mt. Vision, Feb. 3.—Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Miller received a telegram Saturday announcing the death of their son Howard Clyde Miller, January 31, at his home in Denver, Colo., after a few days of illness with influenza and pneumonia. Mr. Miller was born at Randolphville, Madison Co., in 1885, the son of Herbert A. and Flora Murdoch Miller. When nine years old he moved with his parents to Maple Grove and later near Morris. He was a graduate of the Morris High school and training class, then entered Colgate university to prepare for the ministry. After five years he was obliged to give this up on account of deafness. In June, 1911, he married Elizabeth Smith of Gilbertsville, where they resided until about two years ago, when they moved to Denver. He is survived by his wife, who is very ill with the same disease, a little girl, four years old, his parents who a few years ago moved to her girlhood home here, and one brother, Frank Miller, residing at Morris. When 15 years old he united with the Baptist church at Gilbertsville. At the time of his death he held a prominent position with the Federal Board of Vo-

SIX MONTHS I COULDN'T WORK

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Me Strong and Able to Work—I Recommend It to All My Friends.

Bayonne, N. J.—"I had pains in back and legs so that I could not stand or walk. I felt so tired all the time, had bad headaches, and for six months I couldn't work. I was treated by a physician and took other remedies but got no relief. A friend told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has helped me very much. I am well and strong and now able to do my work. I cannot thank you enough and I recommend your medicine to my friends who are sick."—Mrs. SUSIE SACATANSKY, 26 East 17th St., Bayonne, N. J.

It must be admitted by every fair-minded, intelligent person, that a medicine could not live and grow in popularity for over forty years, and today hold a record for such wonderful success as does Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, without possessing great virtue and actual worth. Such medicines must be looked upon and termed both standard and dependable by every thinking person.

"YOKE-FELLOWS" SUPPER HELD.

Mr. Fenno and Dr. Mackey Address Small Gathering at Local Y. M. C. A.

Although there was a small attendance at the "Yoke-fellows" supper held at the Y. M. C. A. last evening, the young men who were present had a very enjoyable and profitable hour and a half together. The supper, with beans as the main item on the menu, was served by the Ladies' auxiliary and was much superior to what 25 cent meals usually are nowadays.

Following the supper, integrating short talks were given by W. E. Fenno, state religious work secretary of the Y. M. C. A., here this week in the interests of the religious work of the local "Y," and Dr. Mackey of the Interchurch World Movement, who is in Oneonta for conference with pastors.

Mr. Fenno emphasized the importance of personal work by Christian young men among their fellow-workers and urged those present to become interested in the moral integrity of their friends and to encourage them in right-doing. Dr. Mackey laid stress on team work, declaring that nothing could be accomplished alone, but that we must all work together for the uplift of mankind. Both speakers urged the young men in the Y. M. C. A. to form personal workers' teams to conduct religious meetings in the different churches of the city.

Secretary Lange announced that "Yoke-fellows" suppers would be held every Tuesday evening at the Y, and expressed the hope that interest would increase as the movement progresses. Next week Dr. J. C. Russell, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will be the speaker at the supper.

Mr. Fenno Speaks at High School.

Yesterday morning Mr. Fenno spoke to the High school students in assembly on the subject, "Three Great Motives." His subject had a humorous side which was especially enjoyed by the pupils. In his talk he described the three great motives as ideals, which are possessed by every man, purposes to attain these ideals, and the eventual arrival at the goal.

At 12:25 Mr. Fenno addressed a meeting of about 30 D. & H. shopmen on the subject, "The Date On a Newspaper." He called attention to the fact that all dates are taken from the birth of Christ, and elaborated on that and kindred ideas. The subject was interesting and handled in a masterful manner, evoking an enthusiastic response from the audience. Music was furnished for the occasion.

The next shop meeting will be at 12:25 on Friday in the D. & H. machine shop. Mr. Fenno will speak on the subject, "The Scrap Heap." Music will be furnished by a male quartet.

CITY SURVEY IN ONEONTA.

Rev. U. L. Mackey Meets Ministers for Consideration of Common Problems.

Rev. U. L. Mackey of New York, who is in charge of the city religious survey of New York state, met several of the local ministers yesterday to discuss the matter of a general survey of the city of Oneonta.

There have been many surveys made by individual churches, but this is the first time that all of the Protestant churches of the country have undertaken to get together on the purpose of budgeting their needs in terms of men, money and service. Many of the cities of the state have already been organized for survey and Oneonta will doubtless co-operate, if not at once.

The survey is really a study of the world's need for the church. The proposition of the inter-church movement under which the surveys are being made is to seek the men and money which are necessary to meet the world's religious needs. This movement is well under way and looks toward a budget of $1,000,000. Most of the Protestant denominations are co-operating and it is believed there will be a widespread co-operative movement among the churches. Today Mr. Mackey will meet a conference of ministers at Norwich.

TRACTORS DO THE WORK

OTEGO ROAD CLEARED TO NICHOLS FARM AND COLLIERIES ROAD TO COLLIERIES.

Linn Tractor When Equipped with Runners at Front Does Excellent Work and Sturdy Cleveland from Ford Sales Company Makes good Showing on Colliers Road.

With the Linn tractor mounted at the front on runners and guided by the sturdy team of Charles E. Thompson of South Side and a heavy road machine in tow the state road from Oneonta-Otego was opened yesterday in good shape for light motor cars as far as the farm of Charles E. Nichols. Weather permitting, the town superintendent, aided by Mr. Thompson and others of his force, will continue on this road today with every indication that it will be opened to Otego and perhaps beyond. The tractor was kept in the road with this means of guidance and it performed admirably, demonstrating that the snow can be cleared from the highways in first class manner by this method. Of course Oneonta delayed until the snow was packed in the roadway, which rendered the task extremely difficult.

From the Pond Lily corner to the farm house of H. L. Day the second road machine was kept in motion during the greater part of the day while the contrivance was being rigged for guiding the tractor. Attached to it were the teams of M. G. Keenan and Charles Nichols and they pulled true, and the drifts in that section had been lowered when the tractor arrived shortly after 1 o'clock. The roadway is well packed where the snow could not be cut close to the macadam and while it is not deemed advisable to attempt to use the highway with big trucks or motor buses, the light cars will make it comparatively easy. Below the Day farm there were encountered few drifts and the road is in quite good condition except in one stretch for a few rods where a bit of shoveling will be done early today.

All engaged on this job were confident that snow can be controlled on the state roads in this section excepting in the event of a severe blizzard. Snow fences erected at points where trouble is likely to occur and with the tractor ready as soon as any large snowfall occurs, it is believed that the roads will be kept passable for the entire winter. Preparation should be made for the task during the coming summer.

Colliers Road Open.

While this work was in progress a second force was at work on the Colliers road. This was directed by City Superintendent Bull. His equipment consisted of the sturdy Cleveland tractor provided by the Oneonta Ford Sales company with Frank E. Wells at the wheel and with a road machine attached. Good progress was made and steadily, so that late in the afternoon, a car came through and another went to Emmons later in the day. While the roadway is passable it should be taken with caution and not with heavier machines. The performance of the Cleveland was very creditable and evidenced that it is a great performer for its size and power. It pushed its way through some very sizable drifts and withal the day's results were considered very satisfactory. Further work will depend upon the snow remaining moist and the temperature keeping so that the snow can be moved.

YOUNG PEOPLE BANQUET.

Catechism Class Held Delightful Meeting in Methodist Church Parlor.

On Monday evening of this week the 32 young people of the Methodist Episcopal church who had just completed a course of instruction in the catechism, under the instruction of Dr. B. M. Johns, assisted by Miss Mary Rose and Miss Sarah Green of the Normal faculty, were given a delicious dinner in the church parlors. The banquet was prepared and served by the ladies of the church, and was a most delicious repast, and one heartily enjoyed. Following the banquet there were brief appreciative addresses by L. B. Lennon, L. F. Rose, Edward Clippin, C. J. Beams and I. W. Bolton, after which games were played under direction of Misses Rose and Green and a delightful evening was spent.

On Sunday the members of the class gave a demonstration showing their proficiency in their work, and on that evening 17 of them united with the church by baptism and confession of faith.

Physician Explains Who Should Take Nuxated Iron

Practical Advice on How To Help Build Up Great Strength, Energy and Endurance.

Commenting on the use of Nuxated Iron as a tonic, strength and blood builder
by over three million people annually, Dr. James Francis Sullivan, formerly physician of Bellevue Hospital (Outdoor Dept.), New York, and The Westchester County Hospital, said:
"Lack of iron in the blood not only makes a man a physical and mental weakling, nervous, irritable, easily fatigued, but it utters
by robbing him of that vital force, that stimulus and strength of will which are so necessary to success and power in every walk of life. It may also transform a beautiful, sweet-tempered woman into one who is cross, nervous and irritable."
I have strongly emphasized the great necessity of physicians making blood examinations of their weak, anemic, run-down patients.
Thousands of persons go on year after year suffering from physical weakness and a highly nervous condition due to lack of sufficient iron in their red blood corpuscles without ever realizing the real and true cause of their trouble. Without iron in your blood your food merely passes through the body without being converted into energy, and suffers as wide apart that the mill can't grind.
You want iron in your system as an old man
at thirty, full of intellect, poor in memory, nervous, irritable and all "run down," while an old man at 80 with plenty of iron in his blood may still be young in feeling, full of life, your whole being brimming over with aim and courage.

THE accompanying article of Dr. Sullivan should be carefully read by every man and woman who wishes to become strong, great physical endurance and a strong, keen mentality. Dr. Sullivan tells how to increase the iron in our blood and thereby gain greater physical and mental power, higher intellect and better health.

Run in my opinion you can't make strong, vigorous, successful, sturdy men, and healthy,
rosy-cheeked women by feeding them on metallic iron. The old form of metallic iron must go through a digestive process to transform them into organic iron—Nuxated Iron—before they are ready to be taken up and assimilated by the human system. Notwithstanding all that has been said and written on this subject by well-known physicians, thousands of people still put on dozing themselves with metallic iron, simply because it costs a few cents less.
I strongly advise readers in all cases to get a physician's prescription for organic iron—Nuxated Iron—or if you don't want to go to this trouble then purchase Nuxated Iron in its original packages and see that this particular name (Nuxated Iron) appears on the package. If you have taken preparations such as Nux and Iron and other similar iron preparations and failed to get results, remember that such products are an entirely different thing from Nuxated Iron.

"Nuxated Iron" is a tonic which is used by the author and others with such surprising results, and which is described and recommended down to physicians in a small pamphlet, but one which is sold by mail in the original package. Unlike the other iron tonics, this product is not only pure and clean, but it is also the only one which is so easily absorbed and assimilated by the body, thus giving the best results. The accompanying picture shows the original package of Nuxated Iron. It is a small pamphlet, and it is a good thing to have it on hand.

On a K Kortright Feb. 3, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hendry were pleasantly and surprised Saturday evening January 31 when 18 of their neigh-

by Mrs. S. M. Henderson and decorated with 72 candles was greatly admired and proved to be a toothsome deli-

PROMINENT MEREDITH FARMER.

James W. Leslie, Native of Scotland,
Dies After Brief Illness.

Delhi, Feb. 3.—James W. Leslie, a well-known and prominent farmer of the town of Meredith, died at his home here this morning after a few days' illness. The funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the house, and the body will be brought to Delhi for burial.

Mr. Leslie was born in Scotland 59 years ago, the son of Thomas Leslie and Ann Wright. He came to this country about 35 years ago and a few years later married Jean Nichol, who also is a native of Scotland. After their marriage they came to Delaware county to reside, where he had since been a successful farmer and had won himself a high place in the community where he lived. He is survived by his wife and two children, Helen and James Jr., who reside at home, and a brother, Thomas Leslie, of Delhi. He has no other near relatives in this country, but is thought to have several living in Scotland.

Mr. Leslie was an upright man and was held in the highest esteem by all residents of Meredith. Much sympathy

JURIST OBSERVES BIRTHDAY.

Calls, Cards and Telegrams Mark Ses-cent-Sixth Anniversary of Natal Day.

Norwich, Feb. 3.—Surrounded by his family, showered with postcards by the teachers and many of the pupils of the local schools, and with tel-egramms and messages of greeting from hundreds of friends from all parts of the country, George W. Ray, federal judge in the northern district of New York today celebrated his 76th birthday at his home here. An informal reception was held throughout the day and scores of local friends paid their respects to their distinguished citizen.

Judge Ray sustained a paralytic stroke August 28 last and since that time has stayed much at home, except for automobile rides and trips down town in his wheel chair. He is able to walk about his home with the aid of a cane and daily transacts much business of his court, writing personal letters with his own pen, taking a keen interest in school matters and local affairs as well as in the affairs of the state, nation and his court.

"Twenty below zero" Well, I guess
I won't go down to the board meeting," he said humorously Saturday afternoon, and so the members of the board of education and the supervisors' committee called upon him while he continued their plans in connection with the new memorial library.
He is looking forward to the spring days when he can be about his grounds and garden, and in his office if he does not again return to the active court duties. He has made marvelous gains and the attorneys who appear before him from time to time and who have presented testimony and argued cases before him at his court are all in good health and vigor.

Equip Your Small Car With Goodyear Tires

If you own a Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell or any other car using 30x3, 30x3½, or 31x4-inch tires, you can well take advantage of the high relative value built into all Goodyear Tires.

You can well do so because you can secure in the small Goodyear Tires the results of such skill and care as have made Goodyear Tires the preferred equipment on the highest-priced automobiles of the day.

You can well do so because these small Goodyear Tires are easy to obtain, being produced at the rate of 20,000 a day, and because their first cost usually is as low or lower than that of other tires in the same types and sizes.

Go to the nearest Goodyear Service Station
Dealer for these tires, and for Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes. He supplies many other local owners of small cars.

Fabric, All-Weather Tread
30x3½ Goodyear Single-Cure $17.65

than tubes of less merit. 30x3½ size in water—$3.90
